

Every Child Deserves a Forever Home

In California there are over 20,000 children waiting to be adopted. The average foster child waits three years to find a forever family.

Adoptive Families are especially needed for sibling groups, teens, and children who have medical or developmental needs.

Find out how you can help a child waiting for a forever family.

Call Drew Mayen, Resource Family Recruiter
408-728-0813 or email: dmayen@emqff.org

EMQ FamiliesFirst

"We do whatever it takes to help children, strengthen families, build community, and advocate for system change to ensure that families thrive."