Patient and Family Rights & Responsibilities

Our responsibility as employees of Boston Children's Hospital is to honor our patient and family rights and our commitment is clearly stated for all.

- Boston Children's Hospital is committed to respecting and protecting the rights of its patients and families. We strive to provide care that is sensitive to culture, race, religion, gender, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, source of payment and national origin. This bill of rights provides information about our commitment to you and your family.
