PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT LGBTQ YOUTH
HRC and University of Connecticut's 2017 landmark research shows us some of the most pressing issues facing our youth today.

Only 26% of LGBTQ youth always feel safe in their classrooms

Only 27% of LGBTQ youth are comfortable talking to their school counselor about questions related to their LGBTQ identity

Only 59% of LGBTQ youth have access to a GSA or similar support group

Only 10% of LGBTQ youth often hear their family express pride in their LGBTQ identities

We are making progress on the road to legal equality, yet young LGBTQ people in America still face dramatically heightened rates of discrimination in school, at home and within their community. The impact of family rejection, bullying and the messages they hear about being LGBTQ weigh heavily on our youth. By engaging a broad audience of youth-serving professionals, including K-12 educators, parents and families, mental health providers, pediatricians, religious leaders, recreational athletic coaches and youth development staff (Boys and Girls Club, YMCAs, scout leaders, etc.), we can create spaces in which LGBTQ youth are affirmed, supported and have the ability to thrive.

Time to THRIVE provides a comprehensive professional development opportunity for youth-serving professionals to build awareness and cultural competency, learn current and emerging best practices and gather resources from leading experts and national organizations in the field. The conference is strongly committed to an intersectional approach in all conversations, workshops and keynotes.
